"America"; Samuel Francis Smith (1808–1895) wrote this poem in 1831 while he was a student at Andover Theological Seminary. It was first published in Mason's The Choir. Smith's work was collected in Poems of Home and Country (1895).

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees'
Sweet freedom's song,
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our father's God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!
